SUBJECT:— Appropriation of manure collected on the Inam lands belonging to the Sri Ranganathaswami temple at Tirumalai in the Madadi Taluk.
LAST REFERENCE.

Letter No. 647 dated 17th Dec: 1902 from the Dy. Commissioner, Bangalore District.

During the annual Car festival of the Sri Ranga-nathaswami temple at Tirumalai, Madadi, a large number of cattle are brought for sale and are picketted on the temple Inam lands and in the Tope attached to it. The right for the collection of manure for last year was auctioned for Rs 40/-

One Kullaiyya, Stambh
of the temple petitioned
the Taluk Amildar
stating that he was enjoying the inam land
- Sur: no. 43 - from the time of his ancestors for performing the Stambh service in the temple, & that therefore the right for the manure collected on his - temple inam -
land was due to him.

He was informed that ~~the~~ the manure collected
belonged to the temple, and as the realizations from other sources on the occasion of the Car festival were credited to the temple, the pet. had no right to the manure on the temple income land.

Kullaiya has appealed about stating that he has been enjoying the income land for rendering the Stamik's service in the temple and has ^{been} paying the Jodi about, that he was enjoying the right of the manure in question for the past several years, that only last year he has been deprived of that right and praying that the order ~~of the~~ referring his right for the manure may be set aside and he permitted to collect it in future.

The Dy Commr. in his letter cited above reports that the manure collected on the temple service inam lands belongs to the temple -

Submitted

The Revenue
records show that neither the Dy Commr. nor the Assistant-Commissioner in charge of the Taluk has decided the question. The Asst Commr. simply gave his opinion on the Amildar's report, but asking repl-left- the Auditor to decide it- he deemed fit- ^{as} soon under such circumstances the petitioner may as well to state, he gives an oath that he should, in the first instance, appeal to the Dy Commissioner, against the order of the Auditor

Note
 This seems to be a fit case in which some fee may be charged on each head of cattle brought for sale ~~for sale~~ as the cattle are picketted on temple land. But if the Shank is going to claim the moneys from each levy also, I do not care to make in the matter.

However, please let me know about the importance of this temple, its income and expenditure & savings whether it is visited by devotees & pilgrims & so on.
I am told that another temp.
(of Sri Varasmatha Swami) is attached to this temple and its cost borne by the Sri Ranganatha Swami temple. Is it so?
